105. Raise Your Paddle for Science! Priceless 107. Rex Long Jacket Value $3,000

Did you know that St. James cleaned up at the Illinois State Science Fair last year? Out of 1500 competitors,

- 7 St. James students took home the Gold
- 1 took home Silver!

We are very proud of these students' achievement and proud to say they are students at St. James!

These days, science education is more important than ever to American students. The global arena in science is very competitive which makes staying current imperative. This year, our goal is to continue to maintain a challenging science curriculum at St. James and you can help! Some of the auction funds will be allocated to improve and build up the Science Lab.
